Motion for Default Judgement

BD scanned

Now comes the plaintiff, William A. Newsom, pro-se, respectfully requesting this court to grant him Default Judgement over the defendants First Correctional Medical for the following reasons:

1. Plaintiff filed a motion to stay proceedings due to scheduled spinal surgery on August 14, 2006. An order to stay proceedings was granted on August 28, 2006.
2. Plaintiff filed a status report requesting the stay be lifted on November 17, 2006. The court ordered the stay to be lifted on December 19, 2006.
3. Although it was premature, the plaintiff filed his first set of interrogatories with defendants First Correctional Medical on December 1, 2006. With the stay of proceedings being lifted on December 19, 2006, the defendants had an obligation to respond to the plaintiff's interrogatories within 30 days of the request from the time the stay of proceedings was lifted. They have failed to do so.

4. Although premature, the plaintiff filed his Discovery request with defendants First Correctional Medical on December 18, 2006. The defendants had 30 days to respond to plaintiff's request from the date of December 19, 2006, the day the stay of proceedings was lifted. They have failed to do so.

Wherefore, the plaintiff, respectfully request this honorable court to grant him default judgement over the defendants First Correctional Medical, and grant him the compensatory and punitive damages requested in his complaint and any other such relief as the law may allow.

Submitted this 7 day of February, 2007.
